

Agape Christian Academy Hosts

An Evening with Dr. Georgia Purdom

VP of Educational Content for Answers in Genesis

Friday, April 21: 6:30 to 9:00 pm

Parkside Church: Bainbridge

Dr. Purdom will be speaking on the critical role the book of Genesis plays as we walk out our faith in today's culture. She earned her PhD in molecular genetics from the Ohio State University after earning her undergraduate degree from Cedarville University. In 2015 she received the Alumna of the Year Award from Cedarville. She joined Answers in Genesis in 2006 after teaching as a biology professor at Mt. Vernon Nazarene University. She serves as AiG's Vice President of Educational Content in addition to being a sought after speaker and writer. In her role as VP she oversees the educational programming offered at both the Creation Museum and Ark Encounter and the educational curriculum produced by AiG for homeschool and Christian schools. She has been involved in designs of Creation Museum exhibits including the Natural Selection not Evolution exhibit.
